Holly High School Main Street Show Choir, soloists excel in statewide competition

Award-winning musical theater program part of district's commitment to the fine arts in preparing students for success

HOLLY, Mich. — The award-winning Holly High School Main Street Show Choir left the recent Michigan Musical Theatre Solo & Ensemble Festival with another round of wins by the full choir and two of the choir's soloists. The growing Broncho musical theater program is part of the district's ongoing commitment to the fine arts in preparing students for success and careers.

The full Main Street Show Choir earned a 1 rating at the statewide competition Nov. 9 at Oxford High School. Solo vocalist Lyndsey Tibbs earned a perfect score of 30 and a 1 rating. Fellow solo vocalist Marie Halligan earned a score of 29 out of 30 and a 1 rating.

"I am incredibly proud of our Main Street Show Choir and our winning soloists for their outstanding performances and for contributing to our growing program that continues to attract younger students," said Lu Harding, Holly High School's director of choir and theater. "Our entire choir and soloists put in the hard work, discipline and drive to excel it takes to compete at Solo & Ensemble, and it was truly exciting to witness."

"I'd like to congratulate our Main Street Show Choir and soloists for their continued wins and Lu Harding for her stellar direction of this talented group of young musicians," said Scott Roper, Holly Area Schools superintendent. "At Holly Area Schools, we are very proud of our choir, theater and other fine arts programs that help prepare our students for the real world and careers."
